Deliverance from Egypt

Deu 4:34

Or hath God assayed to go and take him a nation from the midst of another nation, by temptations, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

Declaration of Strength

Psa 77:14 Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people.

The Resurrection

Psa 88:10 Wilt thou show wonders to the dead? shall the dead arise and praise thee? Selah.

Part One:

The Resurrection

"Curiously wrought in the depths of the earth."

Psalm 139:15

Psa 40:5

"Many, O LORD my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward; they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: If I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

Rev 7:9-10

After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands: And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. There is a relationship between the thoughts of God and the multitude which no man can number. That multitude comes from his thoughts.

1st Wonder: That God will reconstitute a person's body, their memories and their personality.

1st Wonder: That God will reconstitute a person's body, their memories and their personality. ...and from that produce a multitude of immortal saints from flesh.

Questions:

How does God see your life at the time of your death?
What is your name written in the Book of Life?
What will it be like to be resurrected from the dead?
How can God make you all over again from the dust?
What will the moment of waking be like?

Part A: Carried in Favor

How does God see your life at the time of your death?

Protection in the womb.

"Hearken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which are borne by me from the belly, which are carried from the womb: And even to your old age I am he; and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you." Isa 46:3,4

From the original...

"I have accomplished, and I will accept; even I will bear your burden, and will release you."

Isa 46:3,4

Part B: Materialization

How God

sees the resurrection.

Dr. Thomas – Eureka

When [Christ] shall 'arise with healing in his rays,' they will come forth from the womb of the dawn as dew. Every resurrected saint will be a dewdrop, sparkling in the starlike glory of a divine refraction. The appearance of dew from the womb of dawn, as representative of the resurrection of the saints, is the most beautiful of scripture similitudes. Before the sun rises, all nature is concealed in the womb of night; and although the herbage is wet with dew, yet is it invisible by reason of the darkness. The dew is, as it were, in Hades, waiting for the birth to be given it by the rising of the sun.

As soon as the eastern portals of the sky begin to open to the light, which is the life of dew, its drops begin to sparkle with the prismatic glory of its refraction. The apocalypse, or appearing of the dew, is its birth from the womb of dawn; and, however clear the air may be at its birth, oftentimes the heat of the sun's rays exhales it from the herbage, and it becomes invisible until it reappears at the atmospheric dew point in the form of clouds.

If the reader understand this he will be enabled to discern the relations of the saints to Jesus, as the Dew and Clouds of the Millennial Dawn to the Sun of the New Heavens, prepared 'as a Bridegroom emerging from his canopy, and rejoicing as a Conqueror for the running of a course .' (Psal. 19:5)"

A trumpet will be blown and the dead will hear it.

lsa 18:3-4

All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on the mountains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye. For so the LORD said unto me, I will take my rest, and I will consider in my dwelling place like a clear heat upon herbs, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.

The mind will wake first.

Song 5:2

I sleep, but my heart waketh: it is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.

They are protected as in the Passover.

Isa 26:19-20

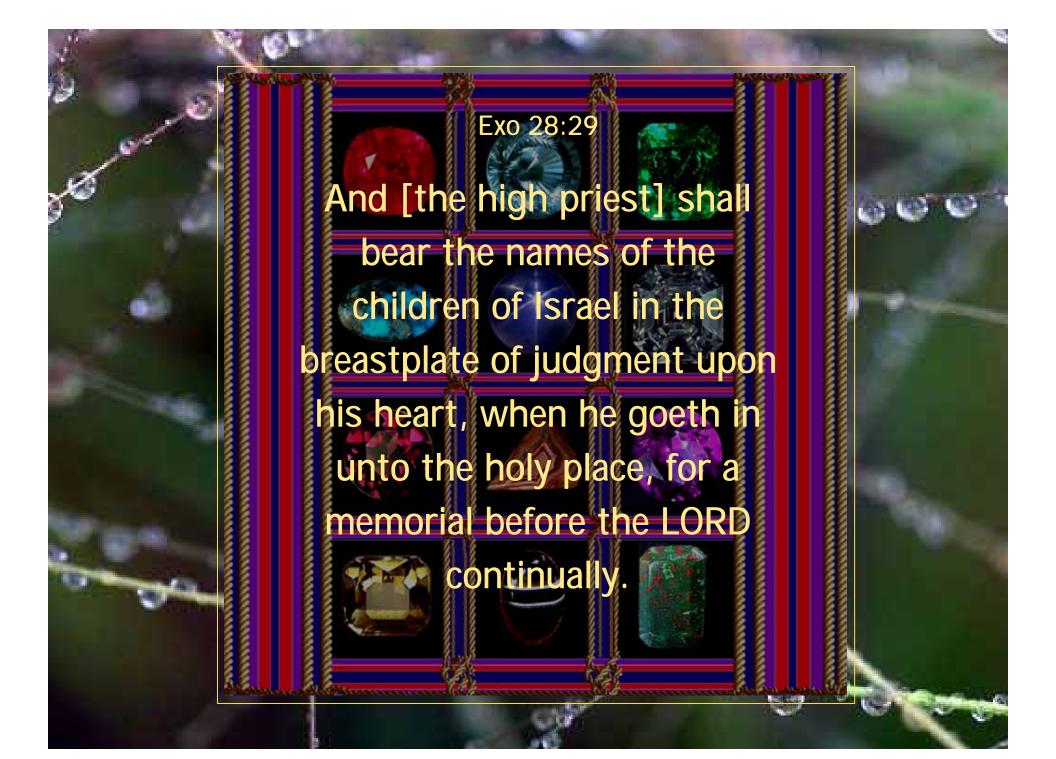

Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead. Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

They are like precious jewels.

Mal 3:17

And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels;

Part C: The Book of Life

Dan 12:1-2 and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake...

Mal 3:16 Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.

Luke 10:20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

Rev 20:12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

Rev 21:27 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

The Intimacy of the Resurrection

Psalm 139

Psa 139:11-17

If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me. Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee. For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb. I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.

15) My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them. How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!

In order for your substance to be reconstituted, God has to remember and be able to rewrite every thing about you.

In effect you are copied in heaven.

Psa 44:21 for he knoweth the secrets of the heart.

Psa 139:2-5 Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways. For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether. Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

Psa 139:13 For thou didst form my [reins] inward parts, [interior self] thou didst knit me together in my mother's womb. (RSV)

Part D: " The Interior Self "

"How are the dead raised, with what body do they come?"

1 Cor15:35

Paul's answer:

A seed doesn't come to life unless it dies.

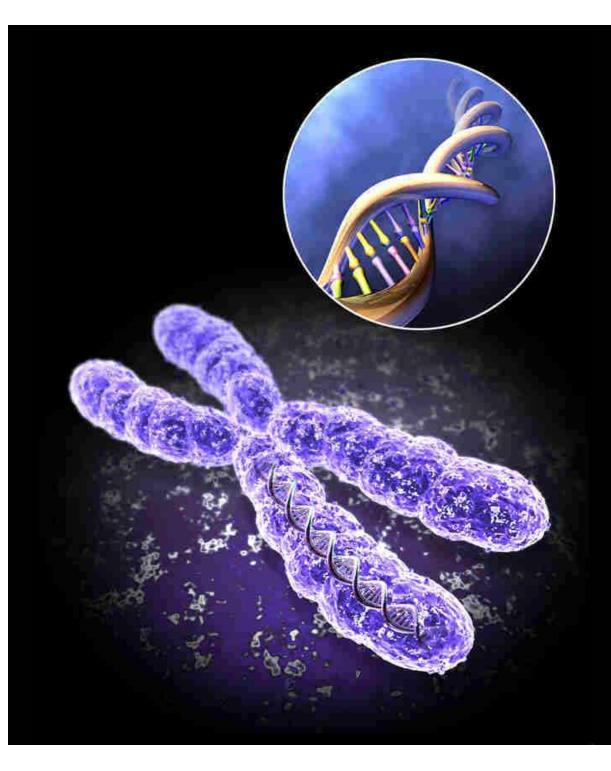

1 Cor15:36

But how will God reconstitute a whole person?

A Trumpet will Sound

Mat 24:31: And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

1 Cor 15:52: In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

Psa 89:15: Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance.

What will it be like to be resurrected?
